OSS Latest PostTop 4 TVs to be released in 2017

If you're looking to buy a TV this year you're faced with quite simply the most complicated and diverse TV market there's ever been. You've got to take into consideration different panel technologies (direct LED, edge LED, and OLED); different resolutions (HD and UHD); whether or not you want high dynamic range and if you do what level of HDR

If you're looking to buy a TV this year you're faced with quite simply the most complicated and diverse TV market there's ever been. You've got to take into consideration different panel technologies (direct LED, edge LED, and OLED); different resolutions (HD and UHD); whether or not you want high dynamic range and if you do what level of HDR performance you want; whether you want a curved screen or a flat screen... honestly, there's pretty much nothing the TV brands aren't trying in order to win over your hearts and wallets.

Top 4 TVs to be released in 2017

March 13, 2017

If you're looking to buy a TV this year you're faced with quite simply the most complicated and diverse TV market there has ever been. You've got to take into consideration different screen technologies (direct LED, edge LED, and OLED); different panel sizes (40 and 55 inches or not) and different models of each panel type. What about the level of HDR performance you want? whether you want a curved screen or a flat screen. Honestly, there's pretty much nothing the TV brands aren't trying in order to win over your hearts and wallets.

Top 4 TVs to be released in 2017

March 13, 2017

If you're looking to buy a TV this year you're faced with quite simply the most complicated and diverse TV market there has been. You've got to take into consideration different screen types (direct LED, edge LED, and OLED); different panel sizes (40 and 55 inches or not) and whether or not you want a curved screen or a flat screen. Honestly, there's pretty much nothing the TV brands aren't trying in order to win over your hearts and wallets.

Top 4 TVs to be released in 2017

March 13, 2017

If you're looking to buy a TV this year you're faced with quite simply the most complicated and diverse TV market there has ever been. You've got to take into consideration different screen technologies (direct LED, edge LED, and OLED); different panel sizes (40" and 55" and up); whether or not you want a curved screen; what kind of HDR performance you want; whether you want a curved screen or a flat screen; honestly, there's pretty much nothing the TV brands aren't trying in order to win over your hearts and wallets.

Xiaomi Redmi Note 4 price, review and specifications

After receiving rave reviews on its home ground, Chinese electronics company Xiaomi finally released its much awaited smartphone, the Redmi Note 4, in the Indian market. The Redmi Note 4 is the newest addition to the company's flagship Redmi Note series and is a successor to the widely successful Note 3.

Coming to specifications, the Note 4 features a 2 GHz Qualcomm Snapdragon 625 octa-core processor coupled with an Adreno 506 GPU. Featuring a uni-metal design along with a 2.5D glass on top, the phone comes with the same 5.5-inch full HD display as its predecessor. Along with that, the Redmi Note 4 boots Xiaomi's Android Marshmallow-based MIUI 8 skin.

As far as the optics are concerned, the Redmi Note 4 has a 13MP primary camera having a 77-degree wide angle lens and a f/2.0 aperture along with that, the Redmi Note 4 has a 5MP fixed focus rear camera having the same aperture as the one on the back.

The Redmi Note 4 comes in three variants offering on their storage capacity as well as RAM. This is the 4GB RAM variant of the phone having an in-built storage space of 64GB.

The Redmi Note 4 was launched in the country on January 19th and is available for buying at the company's website, Mi.com as well as Flipkart starting 23rd January. The Xiaomi Redmi Note 4 best price for this variant in India is ₹ 12,999/-INR.

 64gb+4gb variant my experience
 Bugs are present 1st day my phone is not unlocking . i was shocked i reset by computer then days goes on....
 Get a phone with reliability.
 I am not recommend you
 Best smartphone maker company in India
 1 Motorola
 2 Lenovo
 3 Samsung
 4 ASUS
 5 Redmi! after sell service and bugs in phone is poor!
 Otherwise a good phone.

PAN Card

PAN Card is a card that acts as an identification for Indian nationals, especially those who pay income tax.

PAN, or Personal Identification Number, refers to a unique, 10-character alpha-numeric identifier, such as ARLPA0061H.

The Card is issued by the Indian Income Tax (IT) Department under the supervision of the Central Board for Direct Taxes (CBDT).

It also serves as an important proof of identification. It is also issued to foreign nationals (such as investors) subject to a valid visa and hence, it is not acceptable as a proof of Indian citizenship.

What do you want to

- Corrections to PAN Details
- Damaged or Lost PAN Card

To enter into specific transaction such as:

- Sale or purchase of immovable property valued at Rs 5 lakh or more
- Payment to hotels or restaurants an amount exceeding Rs 25,000 at any one time
- Payment of an amount of Rs 50,000 or more to the Reserve Bank of India for acquiring bonds
- Payment of an amount of Rs 50,000 or more to a company or an institution for acquiring bonds or debentures
- Payment of an amount of Rs 50,000 or more to a company for acquiring shares

What do you want to

Apply For a New PAN

Online application can be made either through the portal of NSDL or portal of UTIITSL.

The charges for applying for PAN is Rs. 107 (including service tax) for Indian communication address and Rs. 994 (including service tax) for foreign communication address.

Payment of application fee can be made through credit/debit card, demand draft or net-banking.

Once the application and payment is accepted, the applicant is required to send the supporting documents through courier/post to NSDL/UTIITSL.

Only after the receipt of the documents, PAN application would be processed by NSDL/UTIITSL.

Is it compulsory to quote PAN on 'return of income'?
Yes, it is compulsory to quote PAN on return of income.

Do I need to apply for a new PAN when I move from one city to another?
Permanent Account Number (PAN), as the name suggests, is a permanent number and does not change.

Changing the address though, may change the Assessing Officer. Such changes must, therefore, be intimated to ITD so that the PAN database of ITD can be updated.

One can intimate change in address by filling up the form for Request for New PAN Card or/and Changes or Correction in PAN data.

This form can be submitted at any TIN-FC or online at NSDL-TIN website.

I have been allotted more than one PAN, what is the procedure for cancellation/surrender of other PANs? (Anonymous)

You may choose any one of the following options to surrender additional PANs:
 a. Income Tax Department's website link <http://incometaxindia.gov.in/pansurrender.aspx> and submit the required details.
 b. Alternatively, you may fill and submit PAN Change Request application form by mentioning the PAN which you are using currently on top of the form.

What is the procedure to cancel/surrender PAN which is being currently used? (Rituraj, 23-Mar-2017)

If you wish to cancel/surrender your PAN (which you are currently using), then you need to visit your local Income Tax Assessing Officer with a request letter to cancel/surrender your PAN.

- Go to this page on the NSDL website.
- Scroll to the bottom and select Individual in the Apply for a new PAN Card drop down menu. Click on Select.
- Now you can start filling the form. In case you have any doubts, visit this page for form filling guidelines.
- The first field is AO Code, which you can look up here. You can also call the Income Tax department helpline at 18001801961 to find out about your AO code.
- The other fields like name, gender, address, etc. are pretty self-explanatory, but remember to select the correct documents you will be submitting along with the application, from the drop-down window in point 15 on the form.
- Once you've filled in all the details, select a payment method at the end of the form. The PAN card application fee is Rs. 105, but additional bank charges may apply depending on the payment method. If you want the PAN card sent outside India, the fee is Rs. 971.
- You can pay via demand draft, cheque, credit/debit card or net banking.
- Click Submit when done.
- Review all the details in your form. Make sure all spellings are correct and enter the captcha code, then click Confirm.
- Now you'll see a page with payment terms and conditions. Note down the transaction number at the top of the page and click Agree.
- Complete the payment.
- You'll now see an acknowledgement form. This has a unique 15-digit acknowledgement number. Print this page.
- Paste the two photographs on the printout of the acknowledgement (in the space provided).
- Sign within the box on the acknowledgement form.
- Put this form in an envelope with the cheque or DD (if you haven't paid online), and the required documents mentioned earlier.

Atal Pension Yojana (APY) is a government-backed guaranteed pension scheme in India targeted at the unorganized sector. It is administered by the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA).

Launched in February 2015, this scheme is for all bank holders aged between 10 and 40 years.

Monthly pensions will be based on the contribution when one joins at the age of 18, by contributing between ₹40 and ₹210 per month.

The life long pension can be availed between ₹1000 to ₹5000 from the age of 60 years.

Will it be beneficial for unemployed youths to opt for the Atal Pension Scheme?

The Atal Pension Scheme caters to the weaker sections of society keeping in mind that the goal of the scheme is focused on retirement. Unemployed youths can opt for schemes such as the National Social Assistance Scheme – which caters to such sections of the society and will be beneficial.

What is the difference between the Atal Pension Yojana and the National Pension Scheme?

The Atal Pension Yojana and the National Pension Scheme are two different saving schemes formulated by the government. Though, the Atal Pension Scheme does fall under the ambit of the PFRDA is regulated under the National Pension Scheme. Introduced by the government in 2015, the Atal Pension Scheme has several differences from that of the National Pension Scheme.

They are:

- With regard to the joining age, one can subscribe to the Atal Pension scheme between 18 to 40 years of age, whereas, for the National Pension Scheme the joining age is anywhere between 18 to 60 years of age.
- For the Atal Pension Yojana scheme, only Indian residents can subscribe to the savings scheme but for National Pension Scheme even NRIs can subscribe to it.
- In the case of the Atal Pension Scheme, subscribers have a standard guaranteed pension after retirement. For subscribers of the National Pension Scheme, their pension received varies with their option of asset classes – Asset Class E, Asset Class G, or Asset Class C.
- Under the Atal Pension Yojana scheme, there are five pension slabs – Rs.1,000, Rs.2,000, Rs.3,000, Rs.4,000 and Rs.5,000 – after retirement. In the case of the National Pension Scheme, pension received post retirement depends on the Pension Fund Manager's performance. 30% of the amount is disbursed upon retirement and the balance is disbursed in monthly installments.

How do you make withdrawals from an Atal Pension Yojana Account? (Anonymous)

OSI: When a subscriber completes 60 years, the guaranteed fixed pension amount would be given to him as per the contribution done previously with 100% annulment of benefits. Under specific circumstances like, the subscriber's untimely death or sudden illness occurring before the age of 60, the accrued pension amount will be handed over to the subscriber or his nominee.

This will be applicable as mentioned in the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority Regulations (Exits and Withdrawals under the National Pension System), 2015. Any subscriber who has got co-contribution from the Government can also voluntarily choose to withdraw or exit the Atal Pension Yojana scheme.

The bank will refund only the contribution amount given by him including the interest earned on all the contributions. The account maintenance charges will be deducted from the refund amount. The co-contribution amount from the Government and the interest earned for that amount will not be refunded.

What is Atal Pension Yojana Return of Corpus?

Under the Atal Pension Yojana scheme, the return of corpus to the nominee of the subscriber has been explained below in the following tables. This varies according to the contribution amount, the joining age and the contribution period. As an example, in order to receive a fixed monthly pension ranging between Rs. 1000 and Rs. 5000, the subscriber should contribute between Rs. 42 and Rs. 210, provided the joining age is 18 years. If the subscriber's joining age is 40 years, then the contribution amount would fall anywhere within Rs. 291 and Rs. 1454.
